

From ABC;

to A-Z

What ABC does now:

ABC advises professionals, parents, care and children about education since over 30 years.

ABC asked:

“How to get tailored education into the minds and hearts of teachers?”

What did

we do?

Kees (and other Teachers) say:

“We’re doing it already - that’s what good education is”

Wim (School director) says:

"I am working on my dream school but at the moment ABC does not yet play a role."

The challenge is...

To develop a joint vision on Excellent Education and making that vision reality

To get more in touch with needs of children, teachers, parents and other stakeholders

You have to be a partner, because:

You have to be adaptive to a changing world

Loosing monopoly position & Council funding

What if...?

our thoughts on

'Excellent education':

- Schools create an open environment in which everybody learns continuously
- Everyone is special : diversity is the norm
- Teachers' craftsmanship is key
- Teachers learn from each other in practice

Star 1: Friends

ABC builds networks and hosts conversations between professionals with a heart for education, this can be online and offline.

Teachers say:

"I'm getting better by learning from others"

"We're now more open to critique"

"I'm being heard"

Parent says:

"It's great to be involved and add something to the education of my child"

What ABC is doing already...

Meesterschappers

The Teachers Lab

Could we make the great ideas that people come up with into practical materials?

Extended with workshops, prototyping etc. perhaps exploring business models

Teachers say:

"Wow! My idea is now a method used all over Amsterdam!"

Child says:

"This is fun!"

"Can we have more pictures please?"

"This book is better than that one..."

What ABC is doing already...

Individual enthusiastic people do it already,
but not systematically yet

teacher & preacher

Star 3:

The A-Z school

Start your own Amsterdam school

Practice what you teach! And preach what you teach!

Spread those teachers to other schools....

Teachers say:

" I am now on a daily basis working on the pupils development but also my own development"

Child says:

"I teached my teacher some words in my own language :)"

School says:

"Our teachers learn from other schools and sharing best practices

What ABC is doing already...

What others are doing..

De Werkplaats, Sterreschool, Integraal
Kindcentrum, and abroad!

What's next...?

So where could we start?
